

Mindful Mutts is looking for someone to join our team!

This position is for a 30-40hr a/week position. ONLY candidates with relevant education and/or experience will be shortlisted and contacted. PLEASE DO NOT APPLY IN PERSON! Thank you!

Ideal candidate will be:

- eager to learn
- familiar with and be able to demonstrate knowledge of R+ (positive, science-based training) as well as reading dog body language
- willing to continue their education in all things dog from a science-based perspective
- clean and tidy
- reliable, honest, trustworthy, punctual, organized
- quick-thinking in critical situations

Non negotiable:

- Must have a good and positive attitude and an upbeat personality
- Must be good with people AND dogs (please don't reply to this ad if you classify yourself as being "good with dogs but disliking people", this goes against our company culture and our human clients are just as important to us as our furry ones are)
- Must have great attention to detail when cleaning or considering safety for yourself as well as coworkers and clients
- Must be able to take direction easily and communicate with management, staff AND clients politely and with tact.
- Must be able to keep up with a very physically and mentally demanding environment
- Must have proof of at least one of the following completed educational credentials in science based dog knowledge: KPA Foundations, Dog Training 101 w/Jean Donaldson, Low Stress Handling Cert., Dip.CBST, Fear Free Certification (CPDT-KA will NOT be considered)
- Must have professional experience working with dogs in a one-on-one or group environment
- Must represent the company in a positive, professional and friendly manner at all times

Bonuses:

- Pet First Aid Certification (if not in the course we offer, we will provide you with the upgrade)
- Live in New Westminister or nearby
- Possess a valid driver's license and vehicle with proof of safe driving record

Compensation starts at $16/hr and may vary for the right candidate if a job offer is proposed.

Visit mindfulmutts.ca for more information about our company, we look forward to meeting the next member of our awesome team! It would be helpful for the ideal candidate to have a good overview of our website to understand the methods we use when training and handling animals, as well as learn about our company.
